Notice

In compliance with the notification of the department of higher education, government of West Bengal, and in view of the spread of Novel Corona Virus, since 20th March, the office of the department of controller of examinations has been closed. But the department is very much concerned about the examinees, whose results have not been published due to aforesaid reason. Consequently, the department will try it's best to publish those pending results as early as practicable after the lockdown period. Hope, the examinees concerned may understand the situation and will try to co-operate with the department
