

Question Bank for PG Course

Geography

Paper-IVA

Population and Settlement Geography : PGGR-IVA

1. Who was the first scholar to formulate 'Laws of Migration'?
2. What is the term that indicates physiological capacity of women to conceive and bear children?
3. What is the characteristic feature of the population growth according to Malthusian theory of population?
4. Which term is used to denote the difference between the total number of persons coming in an area and the total number of persons leaving out from that area?
5. What is the full form of ICDS?
6. What is the term that connotes 'desirable features of a particular location which attract migrants'?
7. In which year the latest Indian National Population Policy (NPP) came into effect?
8. What type of population policies is designed aiming at limiting the growth of population?
9. Why is the roof of traditional houses in West Bengal designed like a curved hog-backed ridge?
10. What is a 'Nekropolis'?
11. What is the K-value in case of administrative principle of central place theory?
12. Who started the 'British Garden City' Movement?
13. In an area there are 10 cities and the population of the largest one is 10,000. Following the rank size rule what will be the expected population of the 10th ranked city?
14. Arrange the following in terms of size i. City ii. Megalopolis iii. Metropolis iv. Conurbation
15. Find out the coefficient of population dispersion (Demangeon) value, when the outside population (E) is 12,000, no. of settlements (N) except the chief one is 5 and total population is 6000.