

Question Bank for PG Course
Geography
Paper-VIIA
Environmental Issues in Geography : PGGR-VIIA

1. Discuss on Montreal Protocol.
2. What are the parameters of sustainable development?
3. Where Chipko Movement for saving trees was started ? India?
4. What are the causes of coastal flooding?
5. Which of the following are the causes of pollution?
  1. Uncontrolled growth in human population
  2. Rapid industrialization
  3. Urbanization
  4. Uncontrolled exploitation of nature
6. Soil erosion is prevented by which ?
7. Consider the following:
  1. Albedo effect
  2. Aerosols in atmosphere
  3. Water vapourWhich of the above has/have contributed to Global Warming?
8. Which is considered as the secondary pollutant?
9. Disaster management and preparedness programme covers which methods?
10. What is the significant decrease of rainfall of (> 25%) from its normal value over an area commonly known as?
11. Consider the following statements about Nitrogen Dioxide:
  1. It is a greenhouse gas as per Kyoto Protocol
  2. It is a pollutant considered for measuring National Air Quality Index
  3. Nitrogen dioxide is a colourless and odourless gasWhich of the above statements is/are correct?
12. When did the term 'Sustainable Development' came into existence?
13. Which UN organisation is responsible for reviewing progress in the implementation of Agenda 21 and the Rio Declaration on Environment and Development?
14. Since which year, monitoring of urban air quality has been undertaken at a global network for the megacities ?

15. In which region is Urban Poverty especially pronounced?