Note:

1. The routine is tentative and the classes will be held as per the availability of the counsellors in the respective study centres. Any alterations in the PCP routine will be communicated by the Academic Coordinators to the students concerned.
  2. PCP for Paper 9B and 10A will be held at Kalyani Campus of the University for all study centres centrally and the dates will be notified by the University in due time in the website.
  3. PGGR Paper 10B (Field Report oriented Dissertation) will be conducted by the faculties of the Department of Geography, NSOU which will be held during this academic session. The field will be arranged during the academic session as the Department of Geography of the University decides. The details will be notified to the students in due course by the respective faculty members. The Field Work is compulsory for all students. Students have to bear their own cost. Students of previous batches who have not completed their field work must attend the field work.
  4. PCP for Field work (10B) will be held at the University campus as and when notified by the faculty members of the Department of Geography of the University.
  5. Students are advised to attend all the PCP classes in their respective study centre and University campus as and when notified. They are advised to consult the Academic Coordinators of their study centres for PCP classes and PGGR Self Learning materials.
  6. The students are advised to prepare the Laboratory notebook of the PGGR practical papers as instructed during the PCP's. A copy of the notebook of each practical paper must be submitted jointly by the students (a photocopy) to the concerned faculty – in-charge of NSOU by each study centre.
  7. The internal faculties of NSOU will continue to conduct the online classes as and when required along with offline classes as an additional support.
