PROGRAMME REPORT

Awareness Programme on "Code of Conduct" and "Academic Bank of Credit" organized by CIQA

Programme Coordinates: Haldia Govt. College LSC (B-06), 11.6.2023, Sunday; 11:30 am-3pm; Face-to-Face

Background and Objectives:

The NEP 2020 has come up with reforms at every speck of education. Higher Education is experiencing and getting exposed to various new policies and relegate the redundant practices. The new sunup in the academic-administrative ecology has brought into fore the National Academic Depository (NAD)-Academic Bank of Credit. Also, the changing vision of the higher education has posed multiple ideas, which needs sensitization among the primary stakeholders. The NSOU sketched the opportunity to organize the awareness programme on the code of conduct and ABC in line with the NEP 2020. The need to disseminate the ideas and translating them into practice goes with the first step of sensitizing the teachers, learners and staff of the LSC. Therefore this drive was taken by the CIQA with the kind approval of the Hon'ble V.C., NSOU at the Haldia Govt. College LSC (B-06).

Participants: About 120, including learners, counselors, university representatives, and LSC staff.

Opening: Dr. Hasibul Rahaman, Coordinator, Haldia Govt. College LSC initiated with opening remarks, greeting everyone present. This was followed by warm felicitation to the university representatives. A soulful Rabindrasangeet by few learners captivated the session.

Welcome Note: Dr. Pijush Kanti Tripathi, O-I-C, Haldia Govt. College expressed a deep sense of gratitude to the invited university representatives, LSC staff, counselors, and warmth to all the learners present in the event. He articulated on the need of awareness on ABC and focus on the university's imperatives on the code of conduct. He also stressed upon the flexibility, multidisciplinary and credit transfer policy as envisaged in the NEP 2020.

Presentation by the Director-CIQA: Prof. Anirban Ghosh vividly presented the ideas and practical demonstration of ABC. Through transparent deliberation and hand-holding demonstration on how to create ABC I.D in the digilocker portal provided a good understanding of the concept-from theory to practice. He elucidated the concerning points on the part of the higher education institutions to cope up and sustain the changing scenario of the reform in education. He also briefed on NSOU's initiatives of providing ABC IDs to almost all the UG/PG learners from the July 2022 session. He also alerted the learners regarding the precautions to be followed while creating the ABC I.D.

Address by the Assistant Director, Study Centre Department, NSOU: Smt. Nilanjana Chatterjee was very vocal in addressing the code of conduct for the enrolled learners. She reinstated the various facets of a learner's educational journey at NSOU- about the registration, renewal, SLM distribution, role of the LSC and responsibility of the university in providing educational support to the learners.

Address by the faculty, NSOU: Dr. Papiya Upadhyay, Assistant Professor, Education enumerated the curricular transactions-F2F, online and blended academic supports. She described the PG model in brief and advised the learners to read the prospectus to know and remain abreast with the code of conduct and other information related to the course. Dr. Upadhyay enquired about the comfortability of the learners in availing the ICT support provided by the university.

Q & A session: Various queries and doubts regarding academic matters were raised by the learners and counselors. It was addressed and explained by the speakers. The speakers clarified and satiated the seekers. This session was lauded with interaction.

Vote of Thanks: Dr. Sipra Samanta, Academic Coordinator of the PG Education, LSC, proposed the vote of thanks. She heartily thanked one and all for making the event successful.

The entire event was joyfully coordinated by the Coordinator of the Haldia Govt College LSC.
