

Awareness Program on Code of Conduct and Academic Bank of Credit (ABC) at Gobardanga Hindu College Support Centre (F-04) held on 16th December, 2023

REPORT

As recommended by Director, CIQA vide Memo- NIL dated 13/12/2023 and approved by competent authority vide VC dated 13/12/2023; Regional Director, Kalyani organized the awareness program on Code of Conduct and Bank of Credit (ABC).

Venue: Gobardanga Hindu College Support Centre (F-04), 24 Parganas (N)

Date: 16th December, 2023 (Saturday)

PARTICIPANTS:

NSOU Team Members:

Prof. (Dr.) Anirban Ghosh, Director, CIQA
Dr. Premananda Jana, Director, Regional Centre, Kalyani
Dr. Barnali Roy Chowdhury, Assistant Professor, DLIS
Shri Hillol Ghosh, IT Officer & Nodal Officer, NAD

LSC Faculty & Staff:

Dr. Krishna Kanta Dhali, Coordinator
Dr. Tridib Mandal, Asst. Professor, History
Prof. Sanat Kr. Das, Associate Professor, Pol. Science
Dr. Biswajit Gain, Asst. Professor, Pol. Science
Dr. Anwesha Mallick, Asst. Professor, Bengali
Mr. Samal Kr. Banerjee, Mr. Arun Kr. Neogi, Mr. Samir Das (Office Staff)

Learners of UG and PG: Approximately 70 students/ learners were present

OBJECTIVES:

To aware the learners about

- UGC NEP-2020
- Academic Bank of Credit (ABC) in line with NEP-2020
- Code of Conduct

MINUTES OF THE PROGRAMME:

At the outset, Dr. Krishna Kanta Dhali, Co-ordinator of LSC, offered a very warm welcome to the learners, faculty members and officers of the University and express his excitement for organizing the awareness program on a very pertinent topic.

The significance of Academic Bank of Credit and its operational aspects have been explained by Shri Hillol Ghosh, Nodal Officer, NAD. He explained the different technical part for opening Academic Bank of Credits (ABC).

Dr. Barnali Roy Chowdhury, Asst. Professor, Department of Library, and Information Science, explained the different aspects of Code of Conduct and its necessity to abide by for the students. She also advised students to follow the university website for obtaining authentic information.

Prof. Anirban Ghosh, Director CIQA has explained elaborately and lucidly about the NEP-2020 laid down by UGC and its benefit for the learners and the necessity of Academic Bank of Credit, its linkage with Multidisciplinary Education and mobility of the students in different locations and disciplines.

At the end, Dr. Premananda Jana explained various administrative issues and asked learners to contact Regional Centres and Learner Support Centres to resolve the issues and thanked the LCS coordinator to organize the program and staff to provide all required facilities and cooperations for smooth functioning of the program.

The program was ended with a vote of thanks by the coordinator and the program concluded on a positive note.

Lastly, the team members move to the LSC office for an inspection of various facilities available, which is provided by LSC to the learners and some observations are listed below:

Observations:

- There is no “NSOU” signboard in front of the LSC office and Principal is requested for the same at the earliest.
- The NSOU website linked with college website but not in prominent place, Principal is requested for the same.
- Requested to place the notice board at prominent place of the centre.
- SLMs are arranged properly.
- UG classes have been organized regularly and attendance record preserved properly.
- Washrooms are maintained properly.

---Report prepared by Shri H. Ghosh & Dr.P. Jana