Minutiae of the inspection

An inspection team of comprising above members were formed by the Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor to see the status of ongoing PCP classes and to check the condition of some books required for practical classes of BLIS/MLIS that were damaged and need to be replaced. The team arrived at LSC around 12.30 pm. Shri Mrinal Kanti Das, Asst coordinator, Burdwan Raj College study Centre welcomed the team and directly took to the PCP classes.

The team had the opportunity to interact with learners. Many learners came from very far places like Rampurhat, Siuri, Borjora, Katwa etc., despite the fact that very less buses were available for a rally on that day. Many of their general query about the time and mode of examination, studentship and renewal, migration certificate was answered by the team.

Prof Ghosh explained to learners that how they can manage their learning in ODL environment. Why they should not change the registered mobile no etc. Prof. Chakraborty address the learners of Library science, explained the scope and opportunity of the subject and how they can get training through this university. Shri Bhattacharya sensitized learners about the utility of NSOU app. How they can get access to video lectures, online SLP;s and soft version of SLM;s etc,

After the interaction team visited the office of the LSC and met all the staff over there. After a small refreshment, team completed the formality and filled up the inspection report taking inputs from records of the LSC. Thereafter team visited the whole campus and reached the SLM store. Raj College has maintained stock and SLM distribution register in good manner. Some old SLMs were lying on campus. It was advised to write an e mail to H.Q store so that, university withdraw the unutilized SLMs from LSC. Further advised to requisitioning of SLM'S which is still not received by the LSC. The damaged books were shown by the LSC. It was decided that necessary steps will be taken by the university.
