Minute of the Programme:-

During teams deliberations Sri Prosenjit Bhattacharya, Dy. Director, RC in discussed about the different PG courses that NSOU offers whereas the principal was very much interested and was looking forward to run PG as well as UG courses.

Professor Sharmistha Chatterjee discussed with all the members regarding Teaching and infrastructure of various courses of NSOU. The LSC had a well developed , well maintained infrastructure and a bright , proacademic ambience. There are ample and qualified teachers who showed eagerness to serve as counsellors if given a chance.

Later on the Team visited the office of the LSC. It was a very active group lead by coordinator Smt Baby Mondal And her staff was managing students well. Team observed that the maintenance of the documents on the notice board was very much satisfactory. SLM distribution and other services were provided regularly with neat and clean records. The Staff of the LSC showed the team some SLM's which were not relevant any more and were stacked here. They were requesting the university to pick them up from here. Over all LSC is functioning very well following all the guidelines of the university.

Sri Debanada Biswas took notes of records regarding dispatch of SLMs.

Sri Biswajit Chatterjee, assisted the inspection team.
