

Report on

Celebration of Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose Birth Anniversary at Kalyani Regional Centre, NSOU

Held on 23rd January, Monday, 2023, 11.00 AM-12.00 PM

Venue: NSOU Kalyani Regional Centre Premises

Attendees: Faculties, staff, and other employees of the University

Relevance of the Celebration:

Subhas Chandra Bose's 127th birth anniversary is being observed throughout the country on Monday (January 23). The day is observed to celebrate his unmatched love and patriotism for the country. Also famous as Netaji, Subhas Chandra Bose was a revolutionary freedom fighter who refused to bow down to the British army and rose to incredible powers and fame during those days. He was the first to address Gandhiji as the father of the Nation. Netaji also created the powerful term 'Jai Hind'. As the state and the country celebrated the 127th Birth Anniversary of the iconic freedom fighter and national hero Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose, the University also celebrated the anniversary of its Namesake.

Unfurling of the Flag:

The programme started with the unfurling of the the tricoloured National Flag by Dr. Premananda Jana, Director, Kalyani Regional Centre, NSOU. Attendees paid respects to Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose by offering of flowers and garland to the Netaji's bust at the Kalyani Regional Centre of the University. After paying respects to Netaji and unfurling of the National Flag everyone equivocally chanted Jai Hind, Vande Mataram and similar slogans of the Azad Hind Fauj and Patriotism.

Dr. Parimal Haldar, Assistant Professor of Education gave his speech on the contribution of the Great Hero to our motherland and insisted that recognizing the values are the core to an effective citizen of India.

Dr. Sintu Ganai, Assistant Professor of Chemistry delivered his brief speech on the significance of the day and echoed the spirit of Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose's idea of an independent glorious motherland. His talk inextricably stressed on the duties and responsibilities of the academia and its stakeholders for the overall development and progress of the University.

Prof. Dipali Kundu, Associate Professor of Geography presented a brief speech on the contribution of freedom fighter in the context of Indian freedom movement.

Dr. Premananda Jana, Director, Kalyani Regional Centre, NSOU delivered the end note address culminating all the speeches. He gave an enriching speech with pertinent historical facts embedded with nationalistic spirit. Dr. Jana thanked all for being a part of this national festival and making it eventful.

The celebration concluded with harmonic national anthem sung by one and all present in the event. This was followed by group photo, tea and small refreshment.

Report Prepared by

Dr. Sintu Ganai

Assistant Professor of Chemistry

School of Sciences, Netaji Subhas Open University